

You're Invited to the 6th annual HFA Colorado Fly-Fishing Jaunts Boxwood Gulch Ranch in Shawnee, Colorado July 9, August 26 and September 29, 2020

In the high-country of Colorado, there is a very special place called Boxwood Gulch Ranch, located on the North Fork of the South Platte River just west of Bailey. Boxwood is, without question, one of Colorado's premier fly-fishing properties, where you will find many different species of trout: Rainbow, Cutbow, Cutthroat, Brown, Brook, Tiger, Steelhead, and Palomino (a very rare white Rainbow).

We invite you to join us for a spectacular day of fishing—that you won't soon forget—on any of the three dates listed above, when Hartmann Financial Advisors, LLC, will host the sixth annual Colorado Fly-fishing Jaunts. We have room for a total of 10 fishermen, who will be accompanied by four of Colorado's best fly-fishing guides, led by Pat Dorsey and John Keefover.

These events are being booked through Blue Quill Anglers in Evergreen, and they will be providing all necessary equipment: rod, reel, and waders (if needed). So while you can bring your own equipment, it is not necessary. Also, you do not need to be an experienced fly-fisherman; many beginners have done quite well at Boxwood, because these guides are also great teachers.

We have several sponsors who will help defray the cost of these two trips, which will reduce the cost per fisherman to just $275.00 for the day. If you would like to join us for what promises to be an exciting day of fishing, please call Katherine at 303.756.8900. These spots usually fill up fast, so don't delay! The last time I fished Boxwood, I had 19 fish on the line and got 14 in the net; and as you can see from these pictures, we're not talking about small fish!
